

4 LEARNING GOAL

Name _____

Date _____

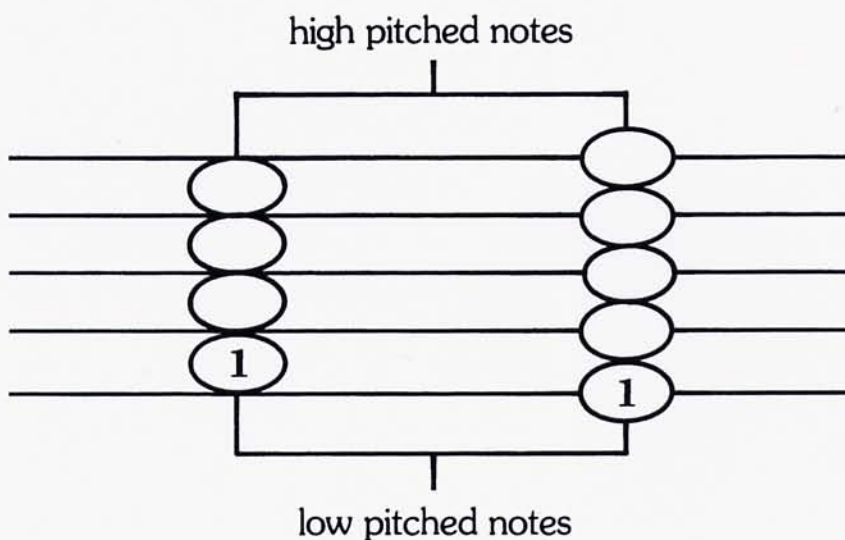

Score _____

THE STAFF

The language of music is made possible by writing notes on the staff. Music notes are written circling lines or on spaces on the music staff. Higher pitched notes are written on top lines of the staff. Lower sounding notes are written on the bottom of the staff.

Strategy:

1. Look carefully at the notes on the lines and spaces of the staff.
2. Write the number of each line and each space in the circles or notes.
3. Remember to count from bottom to top.

CHECK-UP:

1. The language of music is made possible by writing notes on a group of lines and spaces called the _____.
2. There are _____ lines and _____ spaces.
(number) (number)
3. Lines and spaces are numbered from _____ to _____.
4. Highest sounding notes are written on the _____ part of the staff, while lowest notes are on the _____ of the staff.
5. Round egg shaped drawings on the staff are called _____.

