EIGHTH NOTE REVIEW

When counting eighth notes, we must use a number first as well as the word "and". The number is used on the pulse while the "and" comes after the pulse number or in between pulse numbers.

Each eighth note gets 1/2 beat.

Example:

Strategy:

1. Practice counting eighth notes by writing the correct number and word "and" under all notes.
2. The first line has been done for you as an example.
3. Be sure to look carefully at each time signature.
4. You may use a "+" sign instead of the "&" sign.

WRITE COUNTS UNDER ALL NOTES:

CHECK-UP:

1. When you count eighth notes (  ) you must use a _____ first as well as the word _____.
2. The word "and" always comes _____ the number of the pulse.
3. Eighth notes can be connected with a _____ or written separately with a _____.
4. Each eighth note gets _____ of a count.
5. Tap, count and play the above lines of rhythm.
