

18 LEARNING GOAL

Name _____
 Date _____
 Score _____

NOTE NAMES

Remember, we learned there is a separate sentence to help memorize note names on spaces and on lines of the staff.

Sentences are different for each clef sign.

Strategy:

1. Find your clef sign below and circle it with your pencil.
2. Fill in the missing part of the sentences for your clef. Write the missing word.
3. Do only your clef.

A musical staff with a treble clef. The notes on the spaces are labeled 'A' (Fat), 'Can', and 'Eat'. The note on the first line is also labeled 'A' (Fat).

A musical staff with a treble clef. The notes on the spaces are labeled 'D' (Fudge), 'Boy', and 'Good'. The note on the first line is also labeled 'D' (Fudge).

A musical staff with a bass clef. The notes on the spaces are labeled 'D' (Boys) and 'Good'. The note on the first line is also labeled 'D' (Boys).

A musical staff with a bass clef. The notes on the spaces are labeled 'G' (Fudge), 'Can', and 'Animals'. The note on the first line is also labeled 'G' (Fudge).

A musical staff with a bass clef. The notes on the spaces are labeled 'G' (Eat) and 'Cars'. The note on the first line is also labeled 'G' (Eat).

A musical staff with a bass clef. The notes on the spaces are labeled 'A' (Fudge), 'Deserve', and 'Boys'. The note on the first line is also labeled 'A' (Fudge).

CHECK-UP:

1. Write the sentences to help you remember note names:

Space sentence: _____

Line sentence: _____

2. Sentences for note names are not the same for each _____ sign.
3. On the keyboard, the note named "A" is always the _____ white key between the 3 black keys.